

$50 TO FIRST PERSON WHO RECOGNIZES 'MISS ARLINGTON PRESS'

She'll Be Walking On Mass. Ave.
Saturday; First Person Who Spots
Her Will Receive $50 Cash Award

Dog, 12 Years Old, Is Mailman's 'Assistant'

EVER SINCE 1941 "Bessie," a white spitz, has followed Mailman Roger Ormes of 20 Magnolia St. on his rounds as he delivers mail in the Arlington Heights section. "Bessie," owned by Mrs. Proulx of 168 Waverly St., knows the route as well as does the postman, and has never missed a day—with the exception of two years that Ormes was in the service, and a few months he was in the hospital, when she wouldn't accompany the substitute carrier. Now 12 years old, Bessie finds the going a bit tough and sits down every chance she gets, but just won't think of giving up. Above, Mailman Ormes and his "assistant" are delivering mail at a house at Hillside and George Sts. (Dwight Davis Photo)

Here—just to make things interesting—is a new kind of contest: A contest open to anyone over 15, with no entry fee and no strings of any kind—and the prize is $50 in cash, payable immediately.

On Saturday "Miss Arlington Press" will be walking in Arlington Center, and the first person who steps up to her and says: "Are you Miss Arlington Press?" will receive the $50.

The identity of "Miss Arlington Press" naturally is being kept a secret. She may be your neighbor, the girl across the street, the clerk who waits on you.

She may be found sauntering along the sidewalk, glancing at a store window, doing a bit of shopping or she may be behind a store counter.

Whoever and wherever she is, the first person who spots her and asks "Are YOU Miss Arlington Press?" will be the winner of the fifty dollars.

She will admit her identity when approached, but she will be under no compulsion to do so if the questioner is obviously under 15 years old.

As soon as she is "discovered," she will accompany the winner to the office of the Press, over the Stop and Shop store in Arlington Center, where the successful spotter will be given his (or her) $50, and both will be photographed.

In order that "Miss Arlington Press" may not be too difficult to locate, she will operate on Massachusetts Avenue between the town hall and Franklin St., opposite the firehouse.

She will set out at 10 o'clock in the morning and, if not spotted before then, will continue walking and dropping in at various stores until 3 o'clock on the afternoon.

In the event that she is NOT discovered, she will stage a re-

Who Is She?

"MISS ARLINGTON PRESS" will hand $50 cash to the first person who spots her in Arlington Center Saturday. Incidentally, the sketch above gives no real clue to her actual appearance.

appearance the following Saturday, when the prize will be increased to $75. And should she still fail to be spotted the second week, she will return for a third and final try—with the award this time jacked up to $100.

And, in the rather far-fetched contingency that she should remain undiscovered for three Saturdays

Policemen On Changed Shifts And Assignments As Chief Bullock Inaugurates New Work Schedules

All members of the Arlington Police Department found themselves working on new hour shifts, and a majority of them on new assignments, as Police Chief Archie F. Bullock on Sunday put into effect one of the most sweeping shakeups in the history of the department.

Carrying out plans under contemplation for months, the chief put into effect a new three-shift system he is confident will improve departmental efficiency.

In connection with this change, older men have been assigned to the day shift and virtually all the others find themselves on new routes.

"It pays every once in awhile to shift officers around," the chief told the Press. "A man on a route too long gets to overlook things that a new man will immediately spot and correct."

The most important change, however, is in working hours.

The 18 men on the day shift, who up to Sunday worked from 8 to 5 with an hour off for lunch, now work from 8 to 4. They report for roll call at 7:45, however, and are allowed 15 minutes for lunch.

A main reason for changing the day shift, the chief said, is that

Disabled Vet Starts Radio Shop In A Room Of His Home

CLASSIFIED AS 100 PER CENT DISABLED because of heart ailment former T-5 Russell C. Canning of 7 Tanager St., refuses to be disheartened—or idle. He's opened a radio repair shop in one room of the neat home he and his wife and three children occupy in the Heights section, and already many friends and neighbors are bringing him their sets for repair. Shown above with Marsha, 15 months, he's using a new electrical detector that "spots" the weak point in any radio—one of several items of equipment the Veterans' Bureau contributed to help start him in business. A veteran of two and a half years' service in Europe, Canning has been taking a radio course at government expense and he also receives, of course, disability payment. Mrs. Canning also is ambitious: she does work at home wrapping lolly pops for the Pop Shop, and sells magazine subscriptions by phone. Their other children are Roger, 14, and Virginia, 9.

$4,000 In Awards At Penny Sale Saturday

The Arlington committee which is out to raise $10,000 for the Carney Hospital building fund drive, and which will award a new Buick car at the end of the month, is sponsoring a big penny sale this Saturday night in St. Agnes' school hall.

Proceeds of the sale will help increase the amount already raised, and being raised, through sale of shares on the Buick car.

Some $4,000 in merchandise prizes, it is announced, will be awarded at the penny sale, and there will be a $100 door prize. The penny sale awards will include Bendix washers and dryers, Kelvinator refrigerators, pop-up toasters, electric lamps, fans, irons, pressure cookers, clocks, waffle irons, dual grids, appliances, crockery, jewelry and women's fittings.

The sale will start at 8:30, under the direction of the committee that is headed by William Toomey.

Holdup Men Throw Gun Away Here, Steal Auto, Wreck It Against Tree

Two out-of-town holdup men who discarded a loaded revolver in Arlington, stole a car here but abandoned it after crashing into a tree, and then escaped only to be caught near Lowell, gave the local police quite a bit of extra work over the weekend.

As the story later was reconstructed, the men had staged a holdup in Chelmsford and landed somehow in Arlington early Friday morning. Looking around for transportation, they came across a car parked near the home of George F. Snell, 159 Mystic St. The keys had inadvertently been left in the ignition lock, so they appropriated the car.

Before starting out, they discarded a fully loaded 32 caliber revolver. Then, but a short distance away—opposite 344 Mystic St.—they crashed into a tree and abandoned the stolen car, its front badly damaged. This was at 5:20 a. m.

Early that evening word came to local police from Chelmsford that two suspected holdup men being held there had confessed to throwing away a loaded revolver in Arlington—near a hedge on Mystic St., "not far from the traffic light." A half dozen officers scoured the area, without finding the weapon.

The Chelmsford police chief brought the two prisoners here to help in the hunt. They were cooperative, but still the gun could not be found. On Saturday, however Patrolman James L. Donovan finally brought the gun in—a nickel-plated affair, loaded with five bullets. It was taken to Chelmsford to be used as evidence when the two men are arraigned in Lowell District Court tomorrow, Friday.

Flying Home From Cairo

Mrs. Mary Boutee, the former Mary Donovan of Arlington, was momentarily expected home this week by plane from Cairo, Egypt, which has been the scene of her latest assignment as a secretary with the U. S. State Department.

Accompanying Mrs. Boutee on her first visit home in two years will be her husband, Guy Boutee, a courier for the State Department. They are expected to spend about a month with Mrs. Boutee's brother, John Donovan of 1 Newton St., and with her parents, who now live in Cambridge.

Mrs. Boutee, a 1929 graduate of Arlington High School, has been connected with the State Department since before the war and has been stationed in Paris and many other places. Her husband is a native of Florida.

VFW Meeting

Members of the ladies' auxiliary of Arlington Post 1775, Veterans of Foreign Wars, were hostesses to the Middlesex County Council VFW at the council's election of officers, at old town hall here Sunday.

Attending the business meeting were 134 members.

Tendered Shower

Miss Nancy Cutler of Cambridge formerly of Arlington was tendered a bridal shower May 6 at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Cutler of 33 Lakehill Ave., in honor of her approaching marriage to Paul W. Smith of Arlington.

Some 30 friends and relatives attended and the bride-to-be received many beautiful and useful gifts.

I WONDER if Arlington will find some excuse for not accepting the $1,800,000 the state offers for low-cost veterans' housing here?

'Women Best Drivers'

BECAUSE THEY'RE "MORE CAREFUL" and "won't take some of the chances men do," women make the best auto drivers, in the opinion of Hy Garber, above, who at his Arlex Driving School at 350 Mass. Ave. teaches an average of 350 new motorists every year how to operate and thus qualify for driving licenses. Shown with a star pupil, Mrs. Marjorie Currier of 21 Tower Rd., Lexington, Mr. Garber has been an instructor in the Greater Boston area for some 20 years—with time off for war work during the last war. The average student, he says, easily masters driving in 12 half-hour lessons. (Dwight Davis Photo)

Oil Blaze

A flooded oil burner caused the fire department to respond to a call Saturday from the June Beauty Studio, at 491 Mass. Ave. Actual damage was slight.

Dies Suddenly

Gaetano Famolari, aged 73, a roomer at 12 Russell Terrace, was found dead in his room of natural causes Friday night.

Ten Firemen Complete 60-Hr. Training Course

Ten members of the fire department, appointed in the last six months, successfully completed on Monday the prescribed 60-hour course of training. Diplomas certifying their completion of the course were presented to them Monday evening.

The men were instructed at the Highland station, where all fire-fighting evolutions and all equipment were brought into use. Deputy Chief Charles Flynn is in charge of the school, with Capt. James Doherty, instructor, assisted by Lieut. Harry Cooper.

Gives Police Extra Work

Joseph McGivern of 17 Robbins Rd., gave the Cambridge police a bit of extra work Saturday.

A Cambridge doctor complained that a parked car blocked his driveway. The Cambridge police traced its license number to McGivern, then asked Arlington police to go to the McGivern home and find out where McGivern was. It turned out he had parked his car while visiting at the Cambridge Hospital. His visit was cut short while he re-parked his car.

Stricken Ill

Stricken with a heart attack Saturday afternoon on Appleton St., John Schaffer, 72, of 610 Mass. Ave., was removed to Symmes Hospital in the police ambulance.

DeMille Epic On Screen

Cecil B. DeMille, Hollywood's elder statesman, has emerged from a 3 year absence from the screen with a thriller of such gigantic size that it has been hailed as the master showmans masterpiece. This film giant is "Unconquered", and it arrives next Sunday at the University Theatre with Gary Cooper and Paulette Goddard heading a cast of thousands.

DeMille, creator of such screen classics as "Kings of Kings", "The Crusades", "Union Pacific" and "Northwest Mounted Police" has chosen an adventure-packed portion of American history and, with his legendary flair for action on an heroic scale, fashioned a film extravaganza in producing "Unconquered," a Technicolor filmization of Neil H. Swanson's novel, is a surging saga of American heroism in the days before our Revolution. It deals with the events and people involved in the terrible "Pontiac Conspiracy," in which several Indian nations banded together in a merciless campaign to drive the advancing colonists back into the sea.

I WONDER if there are many other towns where railroad tracks are used as a footpath?

False Report Of Boy In Brook Leads To Vain Police Search

A story that several small boys told Wednesday noon about seeing a four-year-old boy fall into Alewife Brook, at the Cambridge line opposite the Immaculate Conception Church, led police and firemen to spend some two hours dragging the brook before being finally satisfying themselves there was no truth to the report.

More than a score of policemen went to the scene and a police car rushed a rowboat to the spot. The fire department had its ladder truck and also its special service truck on hand. Two boats were used in grappling the brook, which is deep and has a bottom pitted with holes.

Police from the first were suspicious of the story told by the boys, who themselves were only four or five years old, but they conducted the hunt on the chance their report might be true. What puzzled them, too, was that no one reported any child missing.

It finally became apparent that there was no body in the brook and the search was abandoned.

Rude Smash To Romance

Seventeen-year-old Patricia Baxter of 47 Lowell St., and a boy friend who was calling on her Saturday night were considerably upset when a rock crashed through the sitting room, where they were seated.

The rock, thrown with perfect aim and considerable force, broke a front window and knocked over a table lamp.

Making Things Interesting

The Arlington Press this week is doing something which frankly is a stunt and a promotion for Arlington business—with no advertising tieups, no expectation of profit to the Press.

As explained elsewhere in this issue a young lady, "Miss Arlington Press," will circulate Saturday among shoppers in Arlington Center. She will saunter along, glance at the shop windows, enter various stores—and the first person who asks her: "Are YOU Miss Arlington Press?" will be rewarded with a gift of $50 cash from the Press.

The Press is DONATING this $50 to get more people on the streets, and thus promote shopping in Arlington stores. The chance of a $50 reward, which any person over 15 may win, should bring out a considerable number of folks with sporting blood—and we hope that with more shoppers on the street the stores as a whole may benefit.

But there is no compulsion upon anyone to do any shopping—in fact, there are no strings of any kind. From 10 in the morning until 3 in the afternoon, or until she is discovered, "Miss Arlington Press" will be walking about, waiting for someone to challenge her and collect the $50.

Can Vets Be Hopeful?

It is to be hoped that the Veterans' Housing Committee, backed up by town officials, will move to belatedly provide low-cost housing for the 300 or more Arlington veterans and their families who still remain desperately in need of homes.

The Sears bill, under which Arlington is entitled to some $1,800,000 of state funds, provides the means to quickly furnish our veterans with adequate housing facilities.

Looking back at past performance here, we cannot be too optimistic. There was a time two years ago when the federal government stood ready to provide 180 dwelling units, at no cost to us—and the offer wasn't accepted.

If the $1,800,000 now proffered to Arlington isn't taken, it will be snapped up by other communities—just as were the 180 dwelling units we declined two years ago.

Unnecessary Exception

The circus has come to town—in Boston—and the big parade is over, but we can't refrain from wondering why Arlington was one of the few communities in Greater Boston which decided AGAINST closing the schools last Friday so that children here could see the big parade.

Many Arlington children saw the parade anyway—thanks to the weather man and a postponement to Saturday because of rain. And some 600, we understand, were determined enough about it to stay out of school on Friday.

More than merely a parade was involved. Granted that circuses are largely tinsel, yet they provide a stimulation to morale and school authorities everywhere recognize that relaxation and recreation rest and sharpen a child's wits. Youngsters can't be kept to the grindstone without letup, and this was the first big parade of its kind in 28 years—and tied up with a very worthy 'Crusade for Children.'

Now We Know

There appeared in last week's issue: "I wonder how often the public waste receptacles on the sidewalks are supposed to be emptied?"

The item had been caused by the fact that several of the receptacles—particularly one at Mass. Ave. and Medford St.—had been choked to overflowing with refuse.

The answer to the "I wonder" was quickly forthcoming. John Donovan, sanitary foreman explained that all such receptacles are emptied once a week and, in the Center, twice a week.

"But," said Mr. Donovan, 'storekeepers and others throw almost everything into the receptacles—even garbage. And delivery trucks for some Boston newspapers throw in stacks of papers.'

MISS BARBARA O'NEIL of Arlington was Tree Day "mistress" at the annual Tree Day Exercises at Wellesley College last Saturday.

ANNOUNCING THE ENGAGEMENT of their daughter are Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Kelley of Franklin St., who make known her troth to Mr. Charles I. Dahill of Arlington.

MAY NUPTIALS, LAST SATURDAY, had for principals Miss Patricia Marie Finlay and Mr. Walter Francis Keefe, Jr., both of Arlington, who were wed at a mass in St. Agnes Church.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Finlay of Irving St., was beautifully gowned in white satin, fashioned with a net yoke of imported lace. Matching imported lace formed her crown which held a finger tip veil of tulle and her white prayer book was topped with an orchid.

As her sister's maid of honor, wore a picture hat and carried a colonial bouquet with her gown of orchid taffeta and marquisette. In similar gowns of lime taffeta and marquisette, the bridesmaids, Miss Shirley McKeown, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Lucille Benoit, both of Medford, also wore picture hats and carried colonial bouquets.

Mr. William Coughlin of Arlington was best man. Serving as ushers were Mr. Walter J. Finlay, Jr., brother of the bride; two cousins of the bridegroom, Mr. Robert and Richard Shea, and Mr. Peter Connolly, all of Arlington.

Mrs. Keefe is an alumnus of Kathleen Dell. Her husband is a veteran of service with the Navy.

A RECEPTION AT THE LOMBARD TERRACE HOME of Mrs. A. W. Forsythe, followed the recent marriage of Miss Christina Chaplin Young to Mr. Charles Scott Callanan in the rectory of the Immaculate Conception Church in Cambridge.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Young of El Monte, California, formerly of Arlington, the bride chose pink accessories to complement her suit of violet shade. Her corsage was of Butterfly orchids and stephanotis. Miss Marie Alessi of Arlington was maid of honor for Miss Young while Mr. William Callanan served as best man for his brother.

On return from their wedding trip to New York, Mr. and Mrs. Callanan will make their home in Arlington.

Police Shifts . . .

under the former schedule most of the men were tied down directing school traffic at noon, and by the time they knocked off for lunch "only three men, sometimes, were left on duty."

"I have been worried about school crossing traffic," Chief Bullock commented. "Under the new schedule, there will be traffic men at all crossings when schools let out at noon and the same protection when the lower grade schools reopen for afternoon sessions."

The first night shift now goes on duty at 4 o'clock, instead of 5, and works until 12 midnight instead of 12:30. The men report at 3:45, and later may take 15 minutes off for lunch.

The second night shift, starting at midnight, ends at 8 a.m. Here too, the men on duty have a 15-minute period for lunch. There are 12 men on each night shift.

The chief said he had consulted with all of his men before making the new assignments, and that older men who preferred day work are now on the day shift.

Chief Bullock, who is executive director of the N. E. Police Chiefs' Association, told the Press that the changes in hours effected here are similar to changes being made in many other progressive cities.

Harty PTA Looks Ahead To Addition

All past presidents of the Hardy School PTA attended an open house at the school Tuesday of last week, when members viewed with pride the new library opened for the children and the redecorated teacher's room.

Listening with gratification to reports of the PTA's accomplishments were Mrs. Donald Marshall, who headed the association as its first president in 1933, and the other past presidents: Mrs. Arthur Clare, Mrs. Ralph O'Neil, Mrs. Harold Lafayette, Mrs. Keith Milne and Mrs. Henry Lunie.

Mrs. Milton Bretscher, president of the PTA, thanked the retiring officers and committee chairmen for their work during the year. School Committeeman Francis J. Higgins, a guest, spoke highly of the association's plans for a six-story addition to Hardy School. Robert Carter led the members in group singing.

Mrs. John Pitko, district director, installed the 1948 officers who are: president, Mrs. Bretscher; Vice President, Mrs. James Aulenback; Secretary, Mrs. Thaddeus M. Sheehan; Treasurer, Mrs. Benjamin Beninati, and Historian Elsie M. Burbank.

A great many young women probably will be asked: "Are YOU Miss Arlington Press?" But the moment that the REAL "Miss Arlington Press" is approached the contest will be over—and someone will be $50 richer.

In the event, however unlikely, that TWO persons claim to discover "Miss Arlington Press" at the same time, the $50 reward will be divided. Decision in such a case will be entirely in the hands of the representative of the publisher of the Press.

No employee of the Press, and no relative of any employee, will be eligible to collect the reward.

Baby Squirrel Falls From Tree; Rescued

A baby squirrel that fell out of a tree on Woodland St., Saturday received a lot of kind, humane attention.

A group of boys, including David Buck of 16 Woodland St., saw the squirrel fall out of the tree, and then remain motionless and crying on the pavement.

David tried to make it stand up, but it couldn't and a passing mailman thought its legs were broken.

So David marched down to police headquarters and reported the incident and a while later Sgt. Harold F. Pick sent to the scene took the little animal away to be tended to.

Should the United States Do About Palestine?" After an enlightening discussion period, ice cream and cookies were served.
The Battle Green Chapter of DeMolay, to which a number of Arlington boys belong, presented "Larry" last Saturday evening at Cary Memorial Hall in Lexington.

Noted Yachtsman To Dedicate Arlington's Sea Scouts Base

Alexander W. Moffett, chairman of the Senior Scout Committee of New England, who will dedicate the Sea Scout base on Spy Pond here June 2, was a scoutmaster in England before Boy Scouting was formally organized in this country.

He was commissioned scoutmaster of Troop 1 in Cambridge, England, in 1909; he has served on the Regional Committee of Boy Scouts of America several years and as Sea Scout Commander over ten years.

He is one of the country's outstanding yachtsmen, has held office in many yachting fraternities and is the author of many manuscripts on the sea, including a book known as the "Galley Guide."

Dedication of the Arlington Sea Scout Base, at the Boys' Club on Spy Pond, will be held in connection with the annual ladies' night and meeting of Arlington Kiwanis Club, sponsors of Sea Scout Ship 37 Canberra.

Boys Escape Cops But Leave Clues

Three boys reported stealing lumber Sunday from Lake St., where new homes are under construction, made their escape when police arrived—but with one serious error.

In their haste they left behind their three bicycles, and the license plates gave police an unfailing clue to their identities.
Shortly afterwards the boys were explaining themselves to investigating officers.

The successful presentation showed the earnest labors of the cast and fine direction of Terry Schuman, Jr. Cast members from Arlington were William Nelson, Garry Stephens, Sarkis Zartarian, Donald Green, Colin Ramsey, Richard MacDougal, Nancy Adams, Connie
Young and Barbara Duncan. Glenn Barber was in charge of tickets in Arlington; Ronald Simonds and Dick Rochford worked on the stage crew and Donald Lundquist, Frank Swan and Robert Sisson were the ushers.

To date the Boys' Baseball Team has a five-three record.
Arl. 6 Newton 2
Arl. 4 Watertown 5
Arl. 6 Brookline 8
Arl. 1 Waltham 13
Arl. 9 Camb. Latin 6
Arl. 2 Newton 1
Arl. 13 Rindge Tech 2

The fourth Arlington win was the defeat of Watertown in the second game with that team this season.

An ambitious senior girl at AHS is Joan Flentje, a tall, attractive brownette, who really enters into the spirit of school activities. She's a very active member of the "Chronicle" staff, being girls' sports editor; belongs to the Ski Club, Girls' Tennis team, played goalie on the field hockey squad, is a Rifle Club member, has earned two bullets denoting scores of 50, and was assistant manager of the girls' basketball team.

This seventeen-year-old girl chooses swimming as her favorite sport, horseback riding and skiing runners-up. This summer she will combine her love for children and swimming with counselor work at the Beth Day Camp where she'll become a swimming instructor.
Baby sitting is another of her pastimes, a rather profitable one at that.

Joan has been studying college subjects these past three years at high school in preparation for four years of training at Lesley College (Incidentally, she's one of those lucky seniors who has already been accepted.) At Lesley she will study to become a teacher.

Drunk Driver

A Burlington, Vt., man, driving a Ford Coupe, found himself under arrest for operating under the influence of liquor after his car rammed the rear of an auto operated by William W. Flynn of 7 Laurel St., on Mass. Ave.

Accost Girls On Streets

Three instances of girls being accosted on Arlington streets were reported to police over the weekend.

A Marathon St. young woman complained she was followed all the way from Somerville to her home Saturday night by an elderly man wearing a brown topcoat,
gray hat and eyeglasses.
A resident of Melrose St. told police that his daughter, aged 16, was accosted Friday night on Mass. Ave., at Melrose St., by a man in a black sedan, and that the man followed her clear to her doorstep.

A third report was from a woman on Everett St., who said her daughter had been accosted on her way home from school.

Houle Pupils In Recital

Featuring Miss Valerie Robbins, a Junior High East student of unquestioned concert ability, an enjoyable piano recital was given Sunday at the home of Mrs. William Burt, 56 Pine Ridge Rd., by eight pupils of Juliette B. Houle's pianoforte school.

Miss Robbins, who lives on Bates Rd., has frequently given school concerts and is considered one of Miss Houle's star pupils.

In the group recital, which was applauded by nearly 100 guests, were pupils in the beginners, intermediate and advanced classes.
The Houle Studio, located in the Capitol Theatre Building, has been teaching the piano here 20 years.

British 'Ford' Is Sold 3 Hours After It Is Put On Display Here

There is no question about Arlington's acceptance of the British version of the Ford car: the first model to reach here was sold three hours after it was put on display, Saturday.

Some 6,000 of the British-made Fords, smaller and more compact than the American version, are being placed on sale in this country and New England dealers will distribute about 1,000 of them.

Charles B. Perham Inc., Ford distributors at 29 Broadway, placed one of the cars—a "Perfect Salon" four-door sedan—on display Saturday morning, and by noon it had been sold.

It was taken off the floor Saturday afternoon to be serviced and was delivered to the purchaser Tuesday morning while Mr. Perham set out to get another one in Boston.

Many would-be auto owners, he said, inspected the first model to be displayed and seemed "very favorably impressed." They liked, in particular, the real leather upholstery, the compactness of the car and economical gas consumption.

Animal Posters Win Awards For 26 Here

Boy, 14, To Broadcast

Fourteen-year-old Ronald Gerbrands of 96 Ronald Rd. will be featured on a radio program this Saturday, at 9:30 a. m. on radio station WCOP.

Ronald came to public attention because of his love of animals and his hobby, which at the moment is the raising of Golden Hamsters—cute little animals that are a cross between a mol and a rat, and so amusing that they sometimes are taken to hospitals to entertain convalescents.

The Arlington boy has composed a story about Hamsters, and he will read it on the air on the "Children's Songbag" program.

Comedy On Tufts Bill

The sparkling comedy "Biography" is being staged this Thursday-Friday and Saturday evenings by the Tufts College Theater.

This is the theater's final offering of the season and it will be repeated May 29 and June 19. Performances will be at the Jackson Gym on Talbot Ave., Medford.

Bridge, Whist

Court St. Agnes, Catholic Daughters of America, will hold its annual Catholic Action bridge and whist party at 8 p.m. next Monday in Legion hall. Arrangements are in charge of Mrs. Ellen Morrissey, chairman.

I Wonder?

I WONDER how many are hoping they'll win the new Buick car to be awarded Saturday of next week in connection with the Archbishop Cushing charity fund?

I WONDER why Arlington's Legion post shouldn't win the coveted honor of leading the convention parade in Worcester in August, in recognition of the post's community activities?

I WONDER how soon members of the Hardy PTA can expect action on their repeated requests for additional schoolrooms at this crowded school?

I WONDER who was the Boston newspaperman who found according to the papers—that he now lives on Colonial Drive, whereas as a matter of fact he goes home every night to Cheswick Rd?

I WONDER who'll be the lucky person who'll recognize "Miss Arlington Press" and win $50 Saturday?

I WONDER how the Legion women managed to assemble so many fine gift items for their annual fair Monday?

I WONDER if the Legion isn't to be congratulated—along with members of the cast—for the fine minstrel show put on this week?

I WONDER if the best advertising medium isn't—always—the medium with the greatest reader interest?

I WONDER how soon the town-appointed committee which is studying possible reorganization of town government, particularly elimination of duplicated services, will have something to disclose to the public?

I WONDER if the police shifts have upset the eating habits of some of the men?

I WONDER when the windows of the Robbins Memorial Library were last washed?

I WONDER if Joe Carey of Chandler St. can attribute his youthful appearance to his hobby as a bibliophile?

I WONDER if we'll ever get an accurate report on High School athletic expenses and receipts?

I WONDER how many know that the Junior Legion hall team is outfitted by Perham's, local Ford distributors?

I WONDER if Mr. Smith of Pierson's Drugs will make that trip to Washington?

I WONDER if folks know that Sally of the Lake St. Tailors is back on the job after her recent operation?

To Plead For Lepers

Edward R. Broad, northeastern secretary of the American Mission to Lepers, will address the Adelphean Group of the First Baptist Church Sunday at 7:30.

His subject will be, "The Greatest Challenge in the World."

Ten years ago Mr. Broad gave up a business career to give full time to the work of the American Mission to Lepers, and he has brought the needs in the field of Leprosy to thousands who never before realized the immensity of the problem.

I WONDER how many people realize the time and effort that Bill Toomey and Bill Holian have devoted to making the Archbishop Cushing drive a success?
